

ADRIO Education and Workshop Criteria

Approved Courses	Professional Development Courses	Sponsored or Joint Events	Educational Workshops	Room Rental
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Education committee reviews syllabus for content and hours for a fee - Once approved the course is accepted by ADRIO as fulfillment of the education requirement for full membership - Other courses may also be accepted as sufficient for the education requirement for membership, eg international universities and similar - Completion certification can be issued by ADRIO for a fee - Approved courses are listed on ADRIO's website for one year unless renewed further -approved course seal provided 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Professional Development Committee develops workshops or programs to fulfill ongoing education requirements for members - Speakers are approached by the committee to provide the workshop, typically at the ADRIO offices - The committee will also accept proposals from outside speakers and organizations to provide educational content - The committee also provides the educational program for the Annual General Meeting - Completion certification is issued by ADRIO 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ADRIO may be approached by outside course providers, organizations or speakers to provide educational programming - ADRIO will have the request approved and provide marketing and registration services for a fee - ADRIO may also provide premises and food service for an additional fee to these programs - Completion certification issued by the course provider 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ADRIO is approached by a course provider or speaker with a course outline that may be of benefit to our members - ADRIO staff develop the program, marketing and collect registration fees - Typically held at ADRIO offices for one or two days - Food service is provided - Completion certification is issued by ADRIO 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ADRIO provides boardroom space to outside course providers that wish to rent space for their program - ADRIO is not involved in the marketing or registration of these events - Food service can be provided if requested - Completion certification issued by the course provider

For inquiries relating to upcoming events or ADRIO room rental, or to submit a workshop proposal, please contact: events@adr-ontario.ca