Part 3, Nov. 24, Mediation

5:30pm – 6:30pm, Total of 6 CEE Points

“The great enemy of truth is very often not the lie — deliberate, contrived and dishonest — but the myth — persistent, persuasive and repeated.”
— President John F. Kennedy, Commencement Address at Yale University (1962)

There is a lot of information currently circulating about ADR, so it is important to understand what is true and what is not.

This 3-part series, led by distinguished ADR practitioners, answers common questions and offers facts in their proper context to respond to the most common myths concerning workplace investigations, mediations and arbitrations.

These sessions are designed to be informative, fast-paced and to-the-point.

This series will be facilitated by:

Marvin J. Huberman, LLB, LLM, FCIArb
