Conflict Management Coaching

CINERGY(r) Coaching is currently offering virtual Conflict Management Coaching Workshops. The next virtual workshop is scheduled for January 17 - March 8.

CINERGY Coaching offers virtual training in conflict management coaching and will resume face to face workshops in due course, as well. For information on dates and duration (the sessions schedules vary), please contact Cinnie Noble at cinnie@cinergycoaching.com

Members of ADRIO receive a $300 discount.

Conflict management coaching – also known as conflict coaching – is a one-on-one technique in which a trained coach assists people to independently manage specific disputes or to strengthen their conflict management skills. This process may also be used to prepare individuals to participate in mediation and negotiation. Conflict management coaching may be used in any context in which clients want assistance to better engage in conflict.

For more information and to register: www.cinergycoaching.com or contact us at cinnie@cinergycoaching.com.

The Essentials

"The Essentials" is a 40- hour introductory dispute resolution program aimed at providing you with the fundamental tools to resolve conflict. Your course begins with a comprehensive look at the origins of conflict and an analysis of responses when we find ourselves immersed in it. You will use that knowledge and apply it to an interest-based negotiation process. Next, we will build on new-found skills-sets and progress to mediation, where a neutral third party assists disputants resolve conflict on their own.

The Essentials will include engaging lectures, videos, in-depth class discussions as well as plenty of opportunity to practice new found competencies by way of role-playing.

The Essentials is targeted to HR professionals, public and private sector employees, legal professionals and anyone interested in resolving disputes. Students will learn the consequences of each type of dispute resolution process which could potentially save time, money and increase morale and productivity. Anyone interested in enhancing their current personal and professional relationships will benefit from this dispute resolution course.

Course completion satisfies the educational component and membership requirements of the ADR Institute of Ontario.

Lightstone Mediation Services is delighted to announce that The Essentials is now available ON-LINE and still satisfies the educational component and membership requirements of the ADR Institute of Ontario and count as hours towards the educational component of the Q-Med and C-Med designations.

Upcoming online course offering (2021):

November 22-26 and December 13-17

In these difficult financial times of COVID-19, please reach out to helen@lightstonemediationservices.com for pricing, for a 'Flatten-the-Curve' special!

Mediation in Racialized and Cultural Contexts

All Cultures Conflict Resolution Services is "outdoor" our uniquely designed online 40-Hour Advanced Course "Mediation in Racialized and Cultural Contexts". This program is essential for mediation professionals who practice in multi-cultural contexts and work with people from diverse ethno-cultural backgrounds.

This course will equip mediation professionals with practical skills for managing risk in inter-cultural exchanges. Upon completing the course, participants will gain specialist skills in inter-cultural mediation, using meaning-making in communication to foster inclusivity in the design and delivery of services.

During the training, participants will:

- Examine and critique normative dispute resolution systems and processes for gaps related to diversity and inclusivity;
- Discuss cultural-other understandings of dispute resolution processes and procedures;
- Discuss how to use enduring resolution methods in mediating culturally contextualized conflicts, with a view to shifting normative paradigms about the role of culture in dispute resolution;
- Explore cultural differences between parties and discuss their relevance to perspectives, identity, dynamics of dispute, and dispute transformation in cultural contexts; and
- Apply culturally-appropriate techniques in simulated mediation exercises to resolve culturally contextualized conflicts.

Spring schedule: May 10 – 21, 2021 Weekends Excepted. Register Now - Spaces are limited to a maximum of 25 participants
