

Civil Procedure Workshop for Non-Lawyer Mediators

August 10, 9:00am – 1:00pm ET | 8 CEE Points
$125 Member, ADRIO | $165 Non-Member
$145 Member, ADRI Affiliates

Workshop Topics

Basic Civil Procedure: This session will cover the litigation process from start to finish, each of the steps in a lawsuit, cost implications, a glossary of legal terms, and what mediators need to know about the process

Civil Procedure for Contract & Employment Claims: This session will cover legal concepts and terminology related to basic contract disputes, as well as wrongful dismissal, two of the most common file types that reach mediation

Civil Procedure for Tort & Insurance Claims: This session will cover concepts and terminology specific to both insurance and personal injury claims and the various automobile insurance acts passed over the last decade.

This online workshop covers all the basics of civil procedure in Ontario for non-lawyer mediators and goes toward fulfilling the civil procedure requirements for the Ontario Mandatory Mediation Program (OMMP). It also counts towards the educational component of the Q.Med and C.Med designations.

A letter of completion will be issued to each student at the conclusion of the class.

Workshop
Facilitator:
Warren Morris

Warren Morris is a non-practicing lawyer, who acts as a mediator and arbitrator/adjudicator.

Warren has a particular expertise in real estate valuation. In addition to his private mediation practice, Warren is a part-time member of the Ontario Land Tribunal, where he mediates and adjudicates expropriation compensation, environmental and development matters. From 2012 until 2020 he was a part-time member of the Assessment Review Board where he mediated and adjudicated property tax matters. Warren's private mediation practice consists primarily of commercial contract and estate disputes. He also regularly facilitates mediations for the Ontario Mandatory Mediation Program, the Farm Debt Mediation Service and the General Insurance OmbudService for Ontario. The ADR Institute of Canada has granted Warren the designation CHARTERED MEDIATOR (C.Med) in recognition of his experience, education and expertise in the field of mediation. Warren has an undergraduate degree in Economics (B. Com.) from McGill University (1986), a Law degree from the University of Western Ontario (1989), and a Masters of Law specializing in Alternative Dispute Resolution from Osgoode Hall Law School of York University (2001).
