Med-Arb Foundational Workshop	Designed for experienced dispute resolution professionals, this advanced three-day workshop offers an in-depth exploration of the med-arb process. Led by Colm Brannigan, C. Med-Arb and other med-arb experts, the program focuses on refining practical skills and addressing complex challenges in integrated processes. Key topics include process design, ethical nuances, agreement drafting, transitioning from mediator to arbitrator, decision-making, award writing, and managing party expectations. Participants will engage in interactive sessions, peer discussions, and case-based learning. Enhance your professional toolkit, deepen your expertise, and build greater confidence in delivering fair, effective, and proportionate med-arb outcomes in complex dispute environments.
