

Competitive Edge for Mediators

Civil Procedure Workshop for Non-Lawyer Mediators +
Introduction to Arbitration for Mediators

Two strategically crafted workshops to ensure Mediators remain agile and in-demand within the shifting ADR workforce | November 26 / December 3, 12pm – 4pm, Online

Civil Procedure Workshop for Mediators November 26, 12pm – 4pm Online

For aspiring and relatively new mediators, this workshop is an excellent essential learning opportunity to build a strong foundation for a thriving mediation practice and to remain competitive in the ADR workforce. For experienced mediators, this workshop is an effective refresher of civil procedure and best practices.

This online workshop covers all the basics of civil procedure in Ontario for non-lawyer mediators and goes toward fulfilling the civil procedure requirements for the Ontario Mandatory Mediation Program (OMMP). This workshop counts for 8 CEE points towards the educational maintenance requirements of the Q.Med and C.Med designations.

Instructor:
Warren Morris, LLB, LLM, C.Med
Mediator, Arbitrator, Adjudicator,
Non-Practicing Lawyer

Introduction to Arbitration for Mediators December 3, 12pm – 4pm, Online

Mediation and arbitration are distinct processes. Many practitioners do both. Increasingly, established arbitrators delve into the facilitation of mediation; for aspiring and established mediators, arbitration can offer the prospect of service expansion, too.

This interactive program offers practical perspective into leveraging mediation skills to excel at decision making. It will be an interactive introduction to arbitration for mediators. It will help mediators consider expanding their practices to include arbitration and support arbitrators as they further develop the collaborative skills good decision-makers need. This workshop counts for 8 CEE points towards the educational maintenance requirements of the Q.Med and C.Med designations.

Instructor:
Mitchell Rose, C.Med, Q.Arb
Chartered Mediator, Qualified Arbitrator,
Former Litigator

Flexible Registration Options

You can register for both workshops as a discounted professional development package, or you can register for one individual workshop.

$260 For Both Workshops (register before Nov. 26 for this deal)

$140 for Civil Procedure Workshop | $140 for Intro to Arbitration Workshop

Register: www.adr-ontario.ca/CompetitiveEdge2025