

UnConference 2026

Make it Make Sense: Investigations as a Form of ADR?

We cover topics that are important to you.
You decide the program agenda.
You determine the trajectory of the discussion.

Advanced Best Practice Roundtable Discussion for Dispute Resolution Professionals | June 23, 12:00pm – 1:30pm, 3 CEE

Provocative? Propulsive? Controversial? Let's Talk About It:

Where and how do investigations fit (if at all) on the dispute resolution landscape?

Seize the opportunity to elevate your practice by joining us online for an exclusive, advanced roundtable discussion on the professional practice of Investigations. This interactive session offers a valuable opportunity to connect with industry peers, discover forward-thinking approaches, and explore practical solutions to real-world challenges. Join us to refine your strategy and stay ahead of evolving trends. Designed to foster collaboration and shared learning, this session brings together diverse perspectives to help shape what's next in our industry.

You will decide the program agenda.

All registrants will be given the opportunity to submit questions, topics, and challenges that are of meaningful importance to them; these submissions will be used to form the agenda for the discussion.

This session will be facilitated by Qualified Mediator and Investigations Expert:
Tova Bar-Dayán, MIR, CHRL, Q. Med, AWI-CH

Registration

ADRIO Member
$50

ADRIC Affiliate Member
$70

Regular (Non-Member)
$90

Tova Bar-Dayán is a distinguished leader in Human Resources and workplace investigations, with over two decades of expertise across public and private sectors. As the founder of Sage HR Consulting Inc. and BD Investigations, she is renowned for her expertise in trauma-informed investigations, conflict resolution, and organizational transformation. A licensed private investigator and published thought leader, Tova is dedicated to driving fairness, trust, and excellence in workplaces.

Register: www.adr-ontario.ca/unconference-investigations